

Sydney Women's Rugby – 15s Season 2013

The Pathway to Paris 2014.....!

The ARU will be hosting the 15s National's at Riverview College, Lane Cove in September this year and Sydney Women's Rugby will be once again sending a team to represent our competition.

The ARU have also confirmed that the championships will be a significant program in the selection of the World Cup Wallaroo's squad for 2014.

SWRU would like to give all players playing 15s rugby in Sydney the opportunity to be selected in the Sydney team. Please note that if you are currently not playing 15s rugby but interested in playing we require that you are registered and playing in the SWRU comp by the end of June 2013.

Below is a DRAFT calendar for the season. Note that that coaches Mark Bos, Peter Hammond and Simon Hackett will be watching matches over the next 6 weeks to enable them to pick the best possible team to represent Sydney at the championships.
