Come down to the NSW U16 and U18 Discovery Day. You never know where it could take you

Brooke Anderson

This time last year Brooke Anderson was selected in the NSW schoolgirls team, at the young age of 16, she had never played a game of Rugby Seven's before. Less than 6 months after her debut game for NSW, Brooke went on to win a gold medal at the Australian Youth Olympics Festival and is now the youngest ever representative of an Australian Rugby Team after making her debut for Australia in Hong Kong at the age of 17.
